5. Propositions to Include Certain Issues into the Agenda of the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting and to Nominate Candidates to the Company's Bodies to Be Elected at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting

5.1. The shareholders (shareholder), who in the aggregate own not less than 2 (two) per cent of the company's voting shares are entitled to propose the issues to be included to the agenda of the annual General Shareholders' Meeting and to nominate the candidates to the company's Board of Directors and Audit Commission whose number may not exceed the number composition of the corresponding body.

Such propositions shall be delivered to the company within 90 days after the end of the financial year.

5.2. A number of voting shares owned by a shareholder who signed the proposition to include certain issues into the agenda of the annual General Shareholders' Meeting and the proposition to nominate candidates to the company's bodies, shall be determined as of the date of proposition introduction to the company.

The date of a proposition introduction is the date of a provision receipt in the company.

In case after the specified date, percentage of shareholder's voting shares decreases and is less than 2 (two) per cent of the company's voting shares, the proposition shall be declared eligible, and the Board of Directors is obliged to review it. Dismissal of the proposition based exclusively on this reason is not allowed.

5.3. Propositions from shareholders (shareholder) to nominate a candidate for the company's bodies and to include certain issues to the agenda of the annual General Shareholders' Meeting shall be made in a written form. Oral propositions shall not be accepted or considered.

The proposition shall be signed by shareholders (shareholder) who submitted a corresponding proposition. If the provision provides its submission by several shareholders but such a proposition is signed by only a part of them, it is considered to be submitted by the shareholders (shareholder) who signed it. The Board of Directors shall consider such a proposition and may not dismiss it based on the absence of signatures of all shareholders indicated in the proposition.

If the proposition is signed by the shareholder's representative, there shall be attached the power of attorney for corresponding activities or other documents certifying the right of the representative to act on behalf of the shareholder.

Power of attorney is to be executed in accordance with the requirements of clauses 4 and 5 of article 185 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation or notarized.

In case the proposition is signed by a shareholder (his representative), whose rights for the shares are taken into account by depot accounts, an extract from the shareholder's depot account maintaining the register of rights for the indicated shares shall be attached to the provision.

In case the provision contains wrong information on the number, category (type) of shares owned by the shareholder who signed the provision, and the Board of Directors has specified that shareholders who signed the proposition owned in aggregate at least 2 (two) per cent of the company's voting shares as of the date of proposition introduction, such a proposition of the shareholder shall be satisfied.

5.5. The shareholder (shareholders) of the company may not introduce the proposition to include issues stipulated by subclauses 2, 5, 7, 8, 11–19 clause 10.2. article 10 of the company's Articles of Association to the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting. The indicated issues may be included into the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting only by a proposition of the Board of Directors.

5.6. The Board of Directors shall not be entitled to introduce amendments into the wording of the issues proposed by shareholders for the inclusion to the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, as well as the wording of the decisions on such issues.

5.7. Provisions to nominate a candidate shall contain a name of the body for which the candidate is nominated, as well as information on the candidates stipulated by the company's Articles of Association.

A written consent of the candidate to be elected for a corresponding body of the company shall be attached to the proposition.

5.8. The company shall send a letter to each candidate included into the list of nominees for voting at the elections to the appropriate body of the company, informing the name of the company's body he is nominated for, the name of the person who proposed his nomination, the number of voting shares of the company owned by shareholders who nominated him. The letter shall contain a request for a written confirmation of the data on the candidate which shall be provided in accordance with the Articles of Association.

5.9. The candidate nominated for election to the company's bodies is entitled to withdraw himself at any time upon prior notification of the company in a written form. In case the company receives a written notification from the candidate on his refusal to stand for election to the company's body before the Board of Directors receives a text and a form of the voting ballot, the Board of Directors is entitled not to include the candidate into the voting ballot from the previously approved list.

In case the company receives a written notification from the candidate on his refusal to stand for election to the company's body after the Board of Directors receives a text and a form of the voting ballot, no amendments may be introduced into the voting ballots. During his report on an appropriate issue of the agenda, the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall announce the fact of refusal receipt from the candidate included into the voting ballot.

6. Running the General Shareholders' Meeting in the Form of a Meeting

Running the General Shareholders' Meeting in the form of a meeting consists in a direct participation of the company's shareholders in the General Shareholders' Meeting in order to discuss agenda issues and to make a decision on the issues put to vote.

6.1. Registration for persons having the right to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

6.1.1. Registration for persons having the right to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be performed by the Tabulating Committee at the location of the General Shareholders' Meeting indicated in the announcement on running a meeting.

Registration for persons having the right to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting shall start at the time indicated in the announcement on running a meeting.

The list of persons having a right for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting is drawn up based on the register of the company's shareholders as of the date defined by the Board of Directors when making decisions on the issues related to running the General Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with article 51 of the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies.

6.1.2. Registration for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting held in the form of a meeting is obligatory for the persons who have the right to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Persons whose ballots have been received not later than two days before running the General Shareholders' Meeting are not subject to registration for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting. The indicated persons have the right to be present at the General Shareholders' Meeting and to take part in the discussion of the agenda issues of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

6.1.3. During registration the shareholder (his representative, assignee) who has arrived at the General Shareholders' Meeting shall present a pass or another identity document.

Assignees as well as representatives of persons included into the list of persons who have the right for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting, shall present documents certifying their powers to the Tabulating Committee during registration for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

List of documents certifying powers of representatives and assignees of persons included into the list of persons who have the right for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be determined in accordance with the effective legislation.

In case the indicated documents are not provided, the assignee as well as a representative of the shareholder is not entitled to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

6.1.4. The persons who have the right for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be registered, providing the persons who have come to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting are identified through comparison of the data contained in the list of persons who have the right for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting with the documents presented by these persons.

6.1.5. A voting ballot shall be either forwarded to each person from the list of persons entitled to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting by registered mail, or handed over personally against signature not later than 20 (twenty) days before the date of holding the General Shareholders' Meeting.

At the request of persons registering for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting whose ballots are not received by the company or received less than 2 (two) days before running the General Shareholders' Meeting, they may receive voting ballots with a marking on their reissue.

6.1.6. Registration of persons who have the right to participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting shall end at the moment when the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting announces termination of discussion of the last agenda issue of the General Shareholders' Meeting with the quorum present.

6.2. Opening the General Shareholders' Meeting.

6.2.1. 6.2.2. The General Shareholders' Meeting is legally competent (has the quorum) if the shareholders having in the aggregate more than a half of voices under voting shares placed by the company took part in it.

If the General Shareholders' Meeting agenda covers issues which are decided by voting of different voters' membership, the quorum for decision-making on these issues is determined separately.

At that, the absence of quorum for decision making on issues which are decided by voting of the one voters membership, doesn't interfere with decision making on issues which are decided by voting of the other voters' membership (when the quorum is present).

6.2.3. In case there is a quorum for at least one of the issues included into the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall announce opening of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

In case by the moment of opening the General Shareholders' Meeting there was a quorum only for separate issues of the agenda, at the end of discussion of the last issue from the indicated ones the representative of the Tabulating Committee shall announce presence or absence of quorum for other issues of the agenda.

6.2.4. General Meeting that by the moment of its opening had a quorum only for a few issues of the agenda cannot be closed if by the end time of registration persons whose registration ensures a quorum for decision-making on the other issues of the General Meeting agenda have registered.

6.2.5. In case by the time of the General Shareholders' Meeting there is no quorum for any issue included into the agenda of the company's General Shareholders' Meeting, the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting announces a 2 (two) hour-delay of the General Shareholders' Meeting opening.

A delay of opening the General Shareholders' Meeting is allowed only once.

In case 2 (two) hours after announcement on the delay of opening the General Shareholders' Meeting, the persons who ensure a quorum at least for one issue of the General Shareholders' Meeting agenda do not register, the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting announces the General Shareholders' Meeting failed.

In case 2 (two) hours after announcement on the delay of opening the General Shareholders' Meeting, the persons who ensure a quorum at least for one issue of the General Shareholders' Meeting agenda register, the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting announces opening of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

In the absence of a quorum, to run the annual General Shareholders' Meeting, the second General Shareholders' Meeting with the same agenda shall be held.
